

The Jane Buttrey Memorial Scholarship

The Davidson Honors College awards up to ten Jane Buttrey Memorial Scholarships each year to Juniors who demonstrate academic excellence and promise, as well as financial need. This scholarship is open to all University of Montana-Missoula students who meet the scholarship criteria. The awards typically range in value from $1,000 to $2,000. These scholarships are funded by a generous grant from the Jane Buttrey Memorial Trust.

ELIGIBILITY

1. Applicants must have attained Junior status (60-90 credits) by the beginning of next autumn semester and have a cumulative GPA of 3.4 or higher at the time of application. Applicants must have two more years remaining of undergraduate study.
2. Applicants must have a major or minor in the humanities or social sciences in the College of Arts and Sciences.
3. Buttrey Scholars must register for a minimum of 12 credits (traditional grade only) during each semester of their scholarship year.
4. Applicants must demonstrate financial need as determined by the Financial Aid Office.

APPLICATION

1. Applicants must have a FAFSA on file at UM.
2. Applicants must submit an unofficial UM transcript complete through last autumn semester.
3. Applicants must submit a letter of recommendation from a faculty member. The letter of recommendation must be put in an envelope and sealed, signed across the seal by the recommender, returned to the applicant, and submitted with the completed application.
4. Applicants must provide a two-page essay (double spaced) describing their academic background, extracurricular activities, and goals set for themselves. Applicants are encouraged to convey to the selection committee what they have “made of themselves” thus far and where they hope to go with their education and future career.

Application Deadline: Friday, April 13th @ 5:00 pm.

Please return your completed application to the Davidson Honors College office.

