

THE DAILEY STUDY ABROAD SCHOLARSHIPS

The University of Montana offers up to two Dailey Study Abroad Scholarships of $1,500 each. Funds are available in support of a study abroad program in a country where English is not commonly spoken. This scholarship is jointly administered by the Davidson Honors College and the International Programs office.

Scholarship Eligibility and Criteria:

- All undergraduates at the University of Montana-Missoula are eligible to apply for the Dailey Study Abroad Scholarship. Preference shall be given to individuals who graduated from a Montana high school.
- This scholarship must be used in support of a full-time academic program in a country where English is not the primary language.
- The recipient must demonstrate financial need as determined by the Financial Aid office, be working toward a bachelor's degree, and have earned at least 45 academic credits prior to departure on study abroad.
- The recipient must have a cumulative grade point average of at least 3.25 at UM.
- Preference shall be given to a student who plans to spend an entire academic year abroad; but at the least, the recipient must commit to one semester abroad.
- The recipient must plan to spend at least one semester in residence as a student at UM-Missoula following completion of the study abroad program.

If you wish to apply for this scholarship, please provide the following information:

- This cover sheet
- A current UM transcript (required; an unofficial transcript is acceptable)
- Letter(s) of Support and/or Invitation (required; from UM faculty or study abroad program)
- A 1-2 page essay describing (a) what you plan to do while abroad (e.g., where you will study, with what group or program you will be affiliated, what courses or research project you have planned); (b) what you hope to learn while abroad; and (c) how your study abroad program will contribute to your educational and professional development.
- Applicant must have a FAFSA on file at UM.

APPLICATION DEADLINE: Friday, April 13th @ 5:00 pm for study abroad that will occur the next academic year.
